Dear Pat,

Sorry to be so long answering your request. Got my book - Dewitt - Duett Roots and Shoots to Ann Bregath, publisher. Will be out by June 1st for an autograph party in Selma, Ala. on June 9 or 10th at a Clark - Dewitt reunion. Am busy preparing advertising and ad to get things moving. Hope many prepay. I hate to put out all the money - 400 books @ about 450 pages, 24 pages of pictures have been ordered. Will have Sellers and some Mc Lemore lines in it.

I started filling out on your sheet and decided to just send what I have on the second family. I've got about what you have on the James - Spicy Sellers families. They were slave traders I understand and were first in Wayne Co. prior to 1820.

If you have the old Moses Mc Lemore on anything, a grt grt granddtr say he married a full-blood Indian, Winnie Battrill. She says our Josiah

[illegible]

Mc Lemore Sellers was a dtr of Moses.
I still doubt it as it stands until she offers more proof - at least. She was mixed on other things as -- --

I've not had any time to work on Sellers - Mc Lemore in a long time.

Will close and try to get something off to D. Hannemann. Got her letter today. Said your referred her. I plan to ask her to read and give me the 1810 Census of Co., N.C. Then I think I can finally settle whether we are of Richard or Moses. But, Moses was born in 1787 and seems a wee bit young altho possible to have Daniel born 1806. (He'd be 18 yrs old).
So, if there was a Moses he must be an older one, I think. As the one b. 1787 had a wife by another name anyway.

Boy, does this get sticky at times.
They all gave same names over & over from one generation to another.

So long,
Avis

Dear Avis,

I am sending you the Sellers from the Jones Co. census. I have not worked with them at all except to add what you sent me. In fact, I am still in the middle of putting the Jones data on the computer.

If you can fill in any more blanks for me or correct anything, I will appreciate it.

Postponed Lunch

Save Sick Mother

By Irene King
(Staff Writer) 3/4/55

A delayed lunch hour saved the life of a mother of five little children Monday.

It's often such inconsequential things that tip the scales of fate.

It certainly seemed of no importance to Mrs. Elizabeth Ladady, executive secretary of the Jackson County chapter of the American Red Cross, that she put off her lunch from the usual 12 noon to 12:45 in order to attend a luncheon meeting.

But it seemed of the utmost importance to Mrs. Thomas J. Sellers of Pascagoula, whose life hung in that delicate bal-Delana Sellers, 35, coordinates federal and after-school programs for the Moss Point School District. For three years Sellers has been responsible for overseeing staffing and student selection for after-school tutoring programs. It's important for students to have one-on-one time with a teacher if they are struggling in school, Sellers said. Her three children are enrolled in the program, and she sees the benefits from the program first hand.

In her free time, Sellers sings as an alto in the New Covenant Christian Ministries International Church choir in Moss Point. She began singing in church choirs when she was 9 years old and has continued to sing in a church choir ever since, she said. Her mother, brother and sister served as the first choir for the ministry started by her father.

"It's a really inspiring thing to sing," Sellers said.

Giving back to the community, being a leader in her job and spending time with family make every day special for her.

The lifelong resident of Moss Point said she loves being a part of the community.

"We've been through a lot, but the people here in Moss Point are really a close-knit family," Sellers said. "This is home for me."
